2021 Advocacy Agenda

The WNY Women's Foundation is the leading advocate for issues affecting women in our region.

Advocacy is a major part of our work and one way to ensure that the women in our community have the support, resources, and networks they need to thrive.

Our 2021 Advocacy Priorities are:

The disproportionate impact of COVID-19 on women
We are committed to ensuring equitable recovery opportunities and resources are directed to issues impacting women.
Women ascending as leaders
We work to eliminate barriers to women’s advancement, including occupational, gender, and racial oppression and discrimination.

Women’s economic empowerment
We want to make sure every woman has the opportunity to engage in her community and experience economic success.

Honor Female Leadership
Next week, Kamala Harris will be sworn in as the 49th Vice President of the United States—she is not only our first female VP, but also the first Black and first South Asian-American vice president!

In honor of this historic moment, celebrate all women right here in Western New York and help us ensure female leaders continue to break glass ceilings at every level.

The first 10 donors to give above $25 will receive an 'Empowered Women Empower Women' tank top as a special thank you!

Welcome to New Board Members

We are very excited to welcome six incredible, inspiring women to our Board of Directors in 2021:

- Tiffany Adams of HUNT Real Estate ERA
- Jamie Batt of Rupp Baase Pfalzgraf Cunningham LLC
- Shonda Brock of B&C United Home Care
- Emily Burns Perryman of Daemen College
- Catherine Earle, Community Volunteer
- Nickole Garrison of Garrison Murphy Wealth Management

As business owners, as working mothers, as philanthropists, and as women, our new Board class brings expertise, connections, and passion to the Foundation—all of which will be needed as we continue to make Western New York a better place for women to live, grow, and lead.

We are thrilled to welcome this exceptional class of Board members to the WNY Women’s Foundation team in 2021!
