

What She's Made Of

Thank you to our sponsors and and guests for joining us at our signature spring event, What She's Made Of! Lindsay Shookus, Buffalo native and Saturday Night Live producer, spoke to a full house about how her experiences have motivated her to succeed and support others. It was an inspiring evening celebrating and supporting the women and girls of WNY.

The leadership of our co-chairs, Teresa Bair, Andrea Vossler and Adryan Parks, and support of our generous sponsors and donors, allowed us to surpass our fundraising goal for the event. The proceeds raised from What She's Made Of directly support our mission to create a culture of possibility so each woman and girl can live, grow and lead to her fullest potential. We also raised almost $10,000 at the event to support additional Impact Grants for the upcoming year! To view photos from the evening, click here.

After What She's Made Of, Lindsay visited the Buffalo Promise Neighborhood on Tuesday, May 21 to talk with girls from Highgate Heights Elementary School and Westminster Community Charter School. She spoke about social media pressures, being okay with making mistakes, and the importance of being a "joy chaser" and finding joy in everything you can. We are so grateful to Lindsay for sharing her time with the WNY community!
