

Alexis Webster is currently the Major Gifts Officer at Buffalo Olmsted Parks Conservancy. A proud graduate of the SUNY school system, studying at both University at Buffalo where she earned her BA in Communications and MS in Public Relations Management at Buffalo State University, she was inspired to pursue a career in Communications and Public Relations after her friends and family would compliment her active listening and presentation skills. They often joked that she should be a news reporter with the way she asks questions. Prior to working at the Buffalo Olmsted Parks Conservancy she was responsible for coordinating community engagement events, increasing brand awareness and building relationships. Alexis is dedicated to her community as she serves on several boards and committees, she is passionate about making a difference now and for those who shall come after her. In her free time, she enjoys traveling, cooking new recipes and working on becoming a wine connoisseur.
